PLUMBING BOARD MEETING MINUTES

Date: February 11, 2010
Time: 4:00 p.m.
Place: City Hall, Codes Enforcement Office

Present: J. Michael Mondrick, Steve Jones, Ralph Rossi, Gary Clemens and Mark Domenico
Excused: Frank Tallarino
Guest: Mayor James F. Brown

Summary of Discussion

Mark Domenico thanked the board for their three years of service to the City of Rome and how much he appreciated each of them for their time, efforts and their dedication. Mayor Brown re-iterated Mark's sentiments and gave them a special coin to commemorate their service to the City of Rome.

Mike Mondrick stated that the plumbing test given on January 21, 2010 went very well – only one of the three who took the test passed it. His name is Jeff Zamiello. The board voted unanimously to have Jeff become a licensed plumber for the City of Rome. Jeff will be getting a letter from us with his registration form to fill out. The next exam will be given in June of this year and Mike states he believes we should have approximately 4-5 people taking this test.

Gary Clemens suggested that there should be some place for a person to go, who didn't want to go to college, to learn the plumbing trade. Mike said that he believed Superior Plumbing offered just such a thing in a classroom setting, and he also thought that Brandeles also offered something like this.

Gary also requested that the minutes from these meetings be placed on our website. Mike stated that he would ask Dan Carpenter to post them for us.

Ralph Rossi asked if Mike knew who the new board members were going to be and Mike stated that he only had one "yes" and was working on the other two. Mike said that once he has the three, the names will be given to the Mayor for approval.

Meeting Closed: 4:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted
